

STYLE HIGH CLUB

Corlett Drive in Jozi is the new home of Casarredo Home Interiors. This decor showroom has two floors of exquisite high-end pieces ranging from custom-made furniture to decadent accessories that will add a bit of classic or contemporary charm. The inspiration is European and Eastern, but they are particularly proud of their local talent such as Anthony Shapiro and David Read. Stop by for world-class treasures.

Second Home

Indulge your nesting instinct with this latest offering from the maverick Animal Farm crew. The handwoven Kubu cane 'Nest' is inspired by the homes of weaver birds, and is big enough for three adults. String it up in a big tree, climb up the ladder and while away a lazy afternoon. R43 320

A DOG'S LIFE

Support the African Tails sterilisation programme for neglected dogs by purchasing one of their 2010 calendars, launched and displayed at Wembley Square. The calendar features photos of some of Cape Town's rescued pups by Josie Borain, a series of African folk tales and painted props by Paul du Toit. To buy yours (R120 each), email contact@africantails.co.za
